

MRS. WILSON'S BROTHER IN BRIBE QUIZ

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The congressional investigation into the irregularities of the U. S. Shipping Board turned into sensational channels today and the name of R. Wilmer Bolling, brother-in-law of President Wilson, was brought in as an alleged participant in a $10,000 bribe. The money was put up, according to the testimony, by the Wallace-Downey Ship-Building corporation of Staten Island.

The names of three other Washington men, Tucker K. Sands, former cashier of the Commercial National Bank in Washington; Lester Sisser, formerly a secretary in the shipping board; and John Kraner, an alleged agent for the shipbuilding corporation, were introduced as having participated in the "scam."

Alfred W. McCann, a New York newspaper reporter, told the committee he had obtained an "affidavit" from Sands which Sands requested and later refused to sign, showing:

"That Sands, in 1917, had acted as a 'go-between' in the payment of a $10,000 bribe by the Wallace-Downey Ship-building corporation, which as a result of this payment received 'expedition' in the advancement of $2,000,000 from the shipping board before it had done any work on ships."

"That this $40,000 was to be divided among Sands, R. Wilmer Bolling, brother-in-law of the president; Sisser and Kraner."

McCann said that a photostat copy of this "affidavit" was made at the shipping board division of investigation on the order of Mr. Mehan, head investigator, but that nothing ever came of it.

"Did you ever see anybody about his?" asked Rep. Kelly, of Michigan.

"Yes," said McCann. "I saw Secretary Daniels, former Secretary McAdoo, Chairman Benson and Judge Goff."

Sands himself followed McCann on the witness stand. He is now manager of a New York brokerage house. He identified the photostat copy of this "affidavit."

"Why didn't you sign it?" asked Chairman Walsh.

"Well," replied Sands, "my attorney did not let me."

"Who was your attorney?"

"Peyton Gordon at Washington," replied Sands.

"Did you pay any money on this deal?"

"Mr. Bolling?" asked Chairman Walsh.

"I don't recall whether I paid him anything on this deal or not," said Sands.
